SUBJECT: Intelligence Research Course

ILLEGIB

1. A new training course, Intelligence Research, will begin on 13 January 1958. The tentative schedule calls for five three-hour meetings per week for five weeks. That schedule may be altered as the course develops. No long-term scheduling of the course will be done until the first running has been completed and the results evaluated.

2. This first offering of the course is designed for OSI analysts. Enrollment will be limited to about ten students.

25X1A _____ will be the course instructor,

3. It is planned that subsequent offerings of the course will be designed for analysts of the other Offices of the DDI as well as for those of OSI. Your office will be informed of developments.
